Please describe the methods your agency considered or used to reduce the impact on small businesses (examples: consolidation, simplification, differing compliance, differing reporting requirements, less stringent deadlines, performance rather than design standards, exemption, or any other mitigating technique).

Pursuant to section 324.007, RSMo, which was enacted in 2013, every professional licensing board shall establish by rule the criteria to accept evidence of military education, training or service to be applied toward the requirements for licensure. This proposed rule is necessary to implement that statute. It provides for the State Committee of Dietitians (“committee”) to accept evidence of military education, training, or service to be applied toward the requirements for licensure.

This proposed rule is necessary to implement section 324.007, RSMo. It provides for the committee to accept evidence of military education, training or service to be applied toward the requirements for licensure.

Please explain how your agency has involved small businesses in the development of the proposed rule.

Dietitian licensees have a stake in this rule. It was discussed at the committee’s July 9, 2014 open meeting. Members of the committee were present for this discussion and are in support of the rule.

Please list the probable monetary costs and benefits to your agency and any other agencies affected. Please include the estimated total amount your agency expects to collect from additionally imposed fees and how the moneys will be used.

There are no monetary costs or benefits to this committee related to the implementation of or compliance with this amendment.

Please describe small businesses that will be required to comply with the proposed rule and how they may be adversely affected.

There are no compliance requirements for small business.

Please list direct and indirect costs (in dollars amounts) associated with compliance.

This rule will cost both public and private entities no more than $500 in the aggregate.

Please list types of business that will be directly affected by, bear the cost of, or directly benefit from the proposed rule.

Applicants with related military experience may benefit from the proposed rule.

Does the proposed rule include provisions that are more stringent than those mandated by comparable or related federal, state, or county standards?

Yes___ No X

If yes, please explain the reason for imposing a more stringent standard.
